

What was the most embarrassing moment in front of your parents?

Warning: Adult content: Don't read if it might offend you.

I have actually 2 such incidents.

First one:

I was in Std. VI at that time. And with a unpredictable broadband connection, no personal mobile and zero privacy, watching adult content was kind of dream then. Something which I only heard about from friends, and never actually got to see myself. So, whenever I got to know that today mom is going to market, and dad will be in office, I used to make some excuse to stay at home and try to watch porn. Whenever my broadband got connected, I felt a mini euphoria within, because then I knew I would be able to watch it. So this continued for some days.

One day my mom was gone, and I was watching porn. Little did I know that dad tip-toed into the house as he had forgotten his ID card. He saw me watching it. Something like this:

Started shouting. I was dumbfounded to see him behind me. And in the meanwhile, mom had also returned. So this was how the conversation went:

Dad: What are you watching?

Me: Ummmmm, just as... Nothing.... Ummmmm....

Dad: You should not watch it now. You are not mature enough.

Me: Hmmmm???

Dad: Yes, you cannot watch it now.. Nooooo.....

Me: Ok dad, then tell me when can I watch it?

Dad: Silent, with glowering eyes.

Me: Dad tell na, when can I start watching it then? (Must have asked this repeatedly at least 5 times before he actually answered.)

Dad: After your marriage, do watch it with your husband.

Me: "But dad, when I have a husband, why the hell would I watch it? I would not require it anymore then, would I?"

Dad: Silent. Scratching head. Glowering eyes. Getting his ID in his pocket, picking up his bag, and rushing out to his office, while calling me idiot girl over his shoulder.

And once I did realize what I said in the heat of the moment, I did not look in my dad's eyes for about 2 weeks. And even now, I am the first one to change channel whenever any such scene is due in the movie or any show we are watching together.

Second one:

We had just bought an LCD TV. None of my neighbors had it, and it was considered pretty expensive at that time.

I was watching a Hollywood movie on it, and it had a scene of girls strapping a Casanova guy to bed in order to teach him a lesson. Nothing sex related, but if you just see it at the moment, and not know the background story, you could have mistaken it for that. Something like this, with plethora of girls around:

Just at that exact moment, my mom entered with my neighbor aunties to show her new TV. Without noticing the scene, she pointed her hands towards the TV, while standing in close proximity of it. Most of the aunties were gaping at the scene with their mouth open, and then looking back to see me, and looking forward to see the scene. I could not even switch off or at least change the channel as the aunties were blocking the TV power place. And in that case, remote would't work.

Mom shouted at me asking what the hell. I said, "No mom, not the way you are thinking. Allow me to explain." Mom snatched remote from me and switched off the TV. The aunties were still looking at me nonplussed. I rushed out the room, something like that:

Edit 1: I know I was pretty mature as a kid, and that is exactly why this incident is embarrassing. Please have some laugh, but don't judge me. A humble request!

Edit 2: And for those enquiring the veracity of it, sorry to break it to you people, "NO, it is not a fake story... You did not just return from any fantasy STORYLAND.." ... Mind you, being a girl, it takes lots of guts to write such answers and not go anonymous.. You have a hard time being audacious if you are being fallacious..

Also for those wondering about device, the first incident was on desktop. I got my first laptop in 2nd year of graduation.

Peace..

And THANK YOU EVERYONE for 2k+ upvotes, I wasn't expecting this...This is my 15th answer and the first one to get so many upvotes... Thank you so soooooooo much... :) :)

Can anyone share pictures of a parent and child who look extremely alike?

I would also be curious to see pictures of parents and their child who look nothing alike!

So I believe that my mom and me don't look alike but after I uploaded this picture on social media, I got alot of people commenting that my mom could pass off as an older sister.

I've always grown up with people telling me that I don't look like either of my parents so this one came as a shocker.

So here's the picture from her birthday yesterday,

Say HI to my only twenty something mother ;)
